EDITORIAL CONTEST

2016

CALL FOR ENTRIES

Hi everyone,

It's time for the 2016 West Virginia Press Association Newspaper Contests. This packet contains all of the information you should need to enter your newspaper's best work. If you need help or have questions, please give me a call – 304-342-1011, ext. 160 – or email at donsmith@wvpress.org.

I hope your staff has excellent work to enter and can attend the 2016 WVPA Convention at Lakeview Resort in Morgantown on Aug. 4-6. We have included some photos of our 2015 convention and information on Lakeview.

I hope to see you there,

Don Smith
WVPA Executive Director

Here are the basic instructions and the contest rules and categories.

NOTE: Deadline for submitting advertising and editorial entries is Monday, April 4, 2016.

Step 1 — Acquire the Association Code from the WVPA. The code is included on the WVPA contest email you received with this packet, or contact Don Smith at 304-342-1011, ext. 160.

Register: www.newspapercontest.com/Contests/WestVirginiaPressAssociation.aspx on our contest site. They need your name, newspaper and your email address. You will receive a confirmation email, which you will need to complete registration. Use the link above to register.

Step 2 — Login to the site. You will see a page to submit entries. Your newspaper is already listed on the site. Complete rules for both advertising and editorial contests are available on the site. Some browsers, such as Safari, will open the rules in a new window; others will require you to download the PDF file to your computer.

Step 3 — Click on the “Add New Entry” link.

Step 4 — On this page, select your newspaper name. A lot of your newspaper's information will autofill. If that information is incorrect, please call Don Smith at (304) 342-1011, ext. 160. Your Division will be selected for you based on your circulation. Fill in the preparer's name.

Step 5 — Select the contest class. There are drop-down menus for your convenience. This field will clear each time you save an entry, so you must select a class for each new entry. When you select the class, special instructions will appear below it.

Step 6 — If necessary, provide an explanation of your entry. The explanation/cutline box is limited to 3,000 characters. It's a good idea to write your explanation in another program, such as Word, and copy/paste into the explanation box. If a URL is required, fill in the URL box; there is no need to type "http://." However, if your website has a pay-wall or requires a login and password, you will need to have your IT person create a contest login and password and provide it in the explanation box for each URL entry.

Step 7 — Include the name of the entry. If uploading full-page PDF files, it will be helpful if the entry name matches the editorial or advertising submission on the page so the judges can find it easily. If the judges cannot tell what is to be judged, the entry will be discarded without refund.

Step 8 — Include the name of the person or people who should be credited for any award. This is generally the ad staffer, writer, reporter, photographer, graphic artist, cartoonist, etc. It is not necessarily the name of the person submitting the entry nor the person picking up the award at the convention.

Step 9 — Add your file or files. You can drag and drop files or use the "Add files" button to navigate your files. Generally, files should be in PDF format except photos, which should be in high-resolution JPG format. Other files and URLs may be acceptable as noted in the special instructions. Upload as many files as are necessary to complete your entry but refer to the special instructions for any limitations. Again, if your website has a pay-wall or requires a login and password, you will need to have your IT person create a contest login and password and provide it in the explanation box for each URL entry.

Step 10 — When you have completed your submission, click the "Save" button. If you click the "Back to list" button, you will lose the entry you just completed. After clicking "Save," you will be directed back to the list of your entries.

Step 11 — To submit another entry, click "Add New Entry." As long as you have not logged out of the system, your newspaper name will still be in place and you can simply start at Step 6 again. You may log out and log back in later to continue adding entries. You will need to select your newspaper name each time you log in.

Step 12 — If you are done submitting entries, please review the list. You may not change an entry, but you may delete an entry and resubmit it.

Step 13 — Complete the billing information. You may pay by check to the WVPA, 3422 Pennsylvania Ave., Charleston, W.Va. 25302, or by credit card by calling Dalton Walker at 304-342-1011, ext. 4.

The Annual West Virginia Press Association Newspaper Contest

Deadline for submitting editorial entries is April 4, 2016.

EDITORIAL RULES

1. The WVPA Newspaper Contest's Editorial Competition is limited to West Virginia newspapers of general interest circulation and qualified associate member newspapers. Only WVPA members in good standing are eligible. No others will be judged. Failure to comply with contest rules will result in automatic disqualification of entries.
2. Deadline for entries is April 5, 2016. Awards will be presented Aug. 4-6, 2016 in Morgantown, W.Va.
3. Newspapers must compete in the judging against others in their circulation division:

Division I: Dailies over 16,001 and over

Division II: Dailies 16,000 and under

Division III: Weeklies 4,001 and over

Division IV: Weeklies 4,000 and under

4. Circulation divisions will be based on the daily circulation number used when calculating WVPA annual dues. Dailies must compete with dailies and weeklies must compete with weeklies. Newspapers can opt to enter a larger circulation division. All of a newspaper's entries, in both advertising and editorial, must be entered into the same circulation division. Editors and Advertising Directors should coordinate the entry division.
5. In the case of morning and afternoon newspapers in the same city and under common ownership or in joint operating agreements, combined circulation determines the division and the advertising entries are considered the product of both newspapers. Note: All of a newspaper's entries, in both advertising and editorial, must be entered into the same circulation division.
4. Fee: $6 per entry; must accompany entry. Limit on entries: seven (7) for any one category. Entries using a URL will need to include a login and password, if the website has a pay-wall. Include the login and password and provide it in the explanation box for each URL entry. All entries, including special sections, should be loaded as PDF files. If the rare entry can't be uploaded, mail it to WVPA, 3422 Pennsylvania Ave., Charleston, W.Va. 25302

6. Contest Period: Material published from Jan. 1, 2015 through Dec. 31, 2015.
7. A newspaper may compete in as many categories as desired. The same individual entry may be made in only one category. For example, the same piece may not be entered in Best Feature Story and Best Written News Story. However, any story, feature article, editorial, etc. may be entered in the appropriate category, even if it's contained in entries for Best Single Issue or Best Special Section. Judges may declare no contest if there are insufficient entries in a category.
9. Syndicated columns are not eligible for individual awards but maybe included as part of an entry for Best Single Issue or Best Special Section.
10. Awards will be made by first, second, and third place. Honorable mentions may be awarded at the judge's discretion.
11. Winners of the General Excellence Award will be determined by compiling points received for first-, second-, and third-place awards won in all other categories. (First-place awards are worth three points; second-place, two points; third-place, one point.) No points will be given for Honorable Mention, Photo of the Year or Advertisement of the Year.
12. Announcement of winners will be made at the annual WVPA convention, Aug. 4-6, 2015, in Morgantown, W.Va. It's the hope of the contest committee that there will be increased participation on the part of member newspapers. To encourage this, the committee urges that entries for writing and photography awards be on an individual rather than just a newspaper basis. The individual winners of writing and photography awards will be listed on plaques and certificates along with the name of the newspaper employing them. When there is more than one winner for first place, one plaque will be awarded to the newspaper listing all the names. Certificates will be issued to each person sharing in a first place award.
13. The complete competition shall be under the supervision of the WVPA office. Decisions of the judges selected by WVPA must be regarded as final. The West Virginia Press Association Board of Directors retains all rights and privileges in the conducting of the competition, including cancellation for cause.

EDITORIAL AWARDS JUDGING CRITERIA:

WRITING

1. BEST COVERAGE OF BREAKING NEWS: Judging criteria: Local appeal, impact of lead, thoroughness of news reporting considering time constraints, clarity and quality of writing. Entry notes: This category is intended for news stories for which advance planning is unlikely. It excludes government meeting coverage and columns.

2. BEST IN-DEPTH OR INVESTIGATIVE REPORTING: Judging criteria: Clarity of presentation, quality of writing, scope of the news topic, significance of the subject matter, depth and quality of research, and potential for civic change. Entry notes: An individual entry may include up to three (3) related stories as well as relevant information presented in graphic form. Editors can include a letter of up to 500 words that explains the in-depth level of reporting or document research required and the community benefit of the reporting. This category excludes columns. Newspapers may submit up to seven entries in this category.
3. BEST GOVERNMENTAL AFFAIRS REPORTING: Judging criteria: In addition to quality of writing, local appeal, impact of lead and thoroughness of reporting, judges will consider the ability of the reporter to put government affairs into meaningful perspective for citizens. Entry notes: This category excludes columns. Newspapers may submit up to seven entries in this category.
4. BEST LEGAL AFFAIRS REPORTING: Judging criteria: Local appeal, quality of writing, with an emphasis on rendering police and court jargon into everyday English; impact of the lead; balance in reporting and sourcing. Entry notes: An entry may include up to three (3) related stories on a specific business, economic or labor topic. Entries may include news features or in-depth coverage. Newspapers may submit up to seven entries in this category. We understand that some of these entries include numerous articles; however, judging requires that we limit each entry to three (3) articles.
7. BEST EDITORIAL: Judging criteria: Local appeal, clarity, quality of writing, significance of subject matter and persuasiveness. Entry notes: The entry must have been written by a member of the staff, whether full-time or part-time. This category excludes columns, guest commentaries and syndicated material.

8. BEST NEWS COLUMNIST: Judging criteria: Local appeal, clarity, quality of writing, originality, ability to place news in perspective. Entry notes: Each columnist is limited to a single entry consisting of three (3) columns written by that person. The column must be a regular, original feature of the newspaper. This category excludes columns purchased from syndicated writers and sports columns.
9. BEST LIFESTYLES FEATURE: Judging criteria: Local appeal, impact of lead, clarity, creativity, quality of writing, human interest, on topics addressing lifestyles and social issues. Coverage should go beyond the ordinary. Entry notes: An entry may include up to three (3) related stories, whether sidebars or parts of a series. This category excludes columns and articles appearing in the Sports section. Editors may include a PDF or letter of up to 500 words outlining the overall reporting effort.
10. BEST LIFESTYLE COLUMNIST: Judging criteria: Local appeal, clarity, quality of writing, originality, ability to place perspective on everyday life or a specific area of lifestyle interest. Entry notes: Each columnist is limited to a single entry consisting of three (3) columns written by that person. The column must be a regular, original feature of the newspaper. This category excludes columns purchased from syndicated writers and sports columns.
11. BEST SPORTS NEWS REPORTING: Judging criteria: Local appeal, impact of lead, clarity, creativity, quality of writing, human interest, and reporting that goes beyond the ordinary in presenting the news. Subject matter must be tied to the news of the moment. Entry notes: This category excludes columns and articles appearing in the Sports or Lifestyle sections.
12. BEST SPORTS FEATURE: Judging criteria: Local appeal, impact of lead, clarity, creativity, quality of writing, and a topic that goes beyond the ordinary. Entry notes: This category excludes columns.
13. BEST SPORTS COLUMNIST: Judging criteria: Local appeal, clarity, quality of writing, originality, ability to place perspective on sporting events or issues. Entry notes: Each columnist is limited to a single entry consisting of three (3) columns written by that person. The column must be a regular, original feature of the newspaper. This category excludes columns purchased from syndicated writers.
